

DARK HOUR FOR GERMANY, SAYS SOCIALIST LEADER

Emil Bartha Admits Hun Was Guilty of Starting War; Now Must Pay Its Cost

BERLIN, Dec. 24.—Mutinuous marines, who revolted when ordered to sea, are entrenched in the Royal Palace after a battle with the military guard.

Upon receiving their orders, several regiments of marines rioted, kidnapping the military commander of the city and holding him prisoner.

In the fighting which ensued, four marines were killed and ten wounded.

BERLIN, Dec. 23. (Delayed.)—If the Allies expect to collect indemnities from Germany, they must secure peace immediately so the German can get down to work and earn the money.

Emil Bartha, prominent Socialist, declared in an interview with the United Press today.

Bartha said that while he was convinced Germany was wholly to blame for the war, it would be "unwise for the Entente to strangle its debtors."

"Germany must have peace soon at any price," declared Bartha.

"The Germans must admit defeat and pay anything to get peace and food, so they can go to work and pay off their debts."

"Personally, I was convinced from the start that Germany was guilty of starting the war. I possess no documentary evidence, but I am certain Germany inspired the Austrian note to Serbia. We have demanded publication of the secret documents of the militarists, but the most immediate problems are peace and demobilization."

"We realize the danger of demobilization, as the result of Poland's attitude. We believe, however, that the Allies would take care of Poland if we were defenseless. Furthermore, if Germany were defenseless, the Allies would be able to reduce their armies of occupation and thus save millions of dollars a month both to themselves and to us. It is to the Entente interest to do this as well as ours, because it would be unwise for them to strangle their debtors."

"Germany needs supplies and credit from America and the Allies. We have no cotton, no leather, and very little other raw materials. Millions of our people are hungry. It is a dark hour for Germany."

JOYOUS CHRISTMAS FOR YANK WOUNDED

Red Cross, Salvation Army and Other Bodies Will Act As Santa Claus

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—Their Christmas in "Blighty" will be a joyous one for the 3500 wounded American heroes at debarkation hospital No. 3.

Thousands of gifts and loads of good cheer will be distributed. The Santa Claus will be the Red Cross, the Salvation Army and many other charitable and welfare organizations.

Evergreen and holly deck the hospital today from roof to cellar. A mammoth Christmas tree, decorated with ornaments and gifts, stands in the rotunda. A home-like Yuletide atmosphere prevails.

Soon after midnight Santa Claus will tour the wards. In the morning each wounded man will find hanging beside his bed a large red stocking filled to overflowing with Christmas gifts and goodies. There will be also a walking cane. These all are the gifts of the Red Cross.

A "wonderful" dinner is being prepared for the veterans. There will be turkey and "all its fixins." In the afternoon John McCracken will sing in the auditorium.

The main Christmas feature is to be staged in the evening, when thousands of additional gifts will be given the doughboys.

The Song and the Star

By Rev. J. G. Kennedy

There have been many songs and there are many stars, yet but one song and one star comes to mind as pre-eminent. The birth of a world's Savior was an event, which God deemed worthy of a heavenly song and a heavenly star.

The song expressed "Glory to God in the Highest." This is man's chief end.

This is man's highest attainment even in glory. The song was also of "Peace on Earth," and there is no higher boon for men than this. When man has attained peace with God and with his fellow men he has nothing higher to which he may aspire. The song was heaven born and heaven rendered. No man could count the host of angelic singers, nor reproduce the chords of this wondrous anthem of most thrilling harmony. The best choral club that heaven could send was none too good for the theme and the occasion.

The star differed from all other stars in glory. Other stars might bear a message of infinity of space, or distance, or power. This star succeeded in announcing the birth of the world's great King, in leading worshippers from afar, in opening their hearts and purses in His service. The star led to a mother and her child. The child was to offer Himself in service and sacrifice that men might be set free while a sword was to pierce through the mother's soul. Stars in many windows tell of a mother and a son somewhere behind them. The sons have gone forth to serve, and sacrifice that the ideals of that Son of Mary, Son of God, might be realized in yet fuller measure among men.

The song of Bethlehem ought to thrill our souls this Christmas with deeper emotions of gratitude than ever before in view of the prospect of a world peace built more nearly than ever before upon the life and teachings and death of the babe that was born in Bethlehem.

The Star of the East has appeared anew to lead us to the Christ who is the Star of Hope, the Star of Liberty, the Star of Empire.

Both the song and the star exalted and glorified the Christ child to the place of dominion. He was born a king. He was heralded as Lord.

May He rule our own lives, preside at the peace conference and speedily hasten His second coming in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.

The summons to worship that first Christmas morning came to the wise and rich and distant magi as well as to the ignorant and poor and near shepherds. The Christmas call to come and worship at the cradle of the incarnate child of God comes to every class of every age.

Behold the star. Sing the song on this last and brightest Christmas day the world has ever seen.

TAHITI CAPITAL LOSES HALF OF POPULATION

'Flu' Causes Loss of Many Lives; Disease Spreads Rapidly Over Pacific

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24.—More than half the population of Papeete, capital of Tahiti, have died from influenza and the disease is rapidly spreading through the islands of the Pacific, according to the passengers and crew of the steamer Moana, in port today.

The Moana, on her way to Sydney, visited Papeete.

Mounds of bodies, tar-coated, were burning on the hillsides and whole families, dead from the disease, were burning in the houses in which they had lived.

Influenza is believed to have hit Tahiti harder than any other section of the world.

Among the victims of Papeete was Madame Levina Chapman, known to every traveler in the South Pacific, as hotel and coconut grove owner and member of the Hawaiian royal family.

DECLARES ORDER IS MAINTAINED IN RUSSIA BY BOLSHEVIKI

Agitation Increases In Favor of British Government Statement on Russia

LONDON, Dec. 24.—Capping a growing wave of suspicion, evidenced in the Liberal British press during the past month, the New Statesman today makes the sensational announcement that Bolsheviki, supported now by many former opponents, are effecting a real restoration of Russian order.

The New Statesman, far from being an organ of the extreme radicals, is regarded as being a sober element with a large circulation among Liberal intellectuals.

The article has undoubtedly heightened the spreading impression that the full truth has not yet come out of Russia.

Agitation is increasing in favor of compelling the government to state explicitly its attitude toward Russia. It is now regarded as practically certain this agitation will result in President Wilson being urged to declare his stand on the Russian situation during his visit here.

"Order is more thoroughly re-established in Russia now than at any time since the fall of Czarism," said the New Statesman. "Food distribution is better organized than at any time during the whole war. Factories are rapidly starting up again as fast as raw materials can be obtained. Management of the factories by committees failed for obvious reasons. Management by the Soviets, with consultative committees of employees, has been substituted with growing success."

"The Bolsheviki, though hampered by undesirable tools, are cleaning the country of bribery and corruption. Terror ceased. It has been greatly exaggerated. If Nikolai Lenin had not been in bed as the result of a wound there would have been no 'terror' in Moscow. There have been no executions in Moscow for two months. During the 'terror' there were 400 executions, where 60 per cent were corrupt Soviet officials. Inefficiency is being remedied by rapid recruiting from the educated classes."

"The Red army has become a real disciplined force with a new spirit of revolutionary and nationalist enthusiasm. Its numbers are uncertain but there are at least 600,000 men in its ranks. It has rifles, machine guns and ammunition in plenty, but little artillery. No Russian army has a chance against it. It has experienced nothing but success since September. "Great masses of professional men and petty bourgeoisie have gone over to the Bolsheviki during the past few months. In the large towns the workmen almost unanimously support the Bolsheviki. The peasants were hostile for a long time, but the formation of 'poverty committees' and the administration of the affairs of every village in the interests of the peasants has resulted in a great majority now keenly supporting Lenin."

"The invading British army which six months ago would have found many friends, now finds only a very few. These are mostly property owners."

"Where the white guards (anti-Bolsheviki) temporarily occupied districts, they have carried out 'terrors' on a scale the Red guards never dreamed of."

"Any government established by us will need the support of foreign bayonets, as the Russian proletariat are thoroughly imbued with Bolshevism."

"The Bolsheviki would be certain to get a majority in a constituent assembly, but they prefer a Soviet government. This is frankly a class rule in which property owners have no voice until they become proletarians but as a majority rule it is broader than ours was before the last reform act."

BLIZZARD AND SNOW IN THE MIDDLE WEST

ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 24.—It's to be a real old-fashioned "white Christmas," with whistling winds and probably zero weather thrown in. Rushing up on a howling northwest wind, belated Christmas snows struck the twin cities at daybreak and a blizzard is in progress.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 24.—The southwest was assured today of a white Christmas. The weather bureau here today reported heavy snow over Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Western Missouri and parts of northern Texas. Some snow has fallen in Western Missouri, the report stated.

EXAMINE SOCIALIST EDITOR

CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—Cross examination of J. Louis Engdahl, editor of the American Socialist, was continuing today at the trial of Engdahl and four other Socialist leaders here. Yesterday's government barrage centered about the editor's activity alleged to have been propaganda to discourage enlistment and to have aimed to halt the nation's war efforts.

INTERNATIONAL REVOLUTION IS PREDICTED BY NICK LENINE

Pupils of Agitator School In Moscow Scheme to Stir Up Things at Home

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 24.—One hundred and fifty leaders of Bolsheviki demonstrations in Vienna and Budapest have been arrested, according to dispatches received here today. The arrests followed a series of parades through the streets.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—Nikolai Lenin in a letter to the "revolutionary proletariat of America" declares that an international revolution is inevitable.

The letter, published in the January number of "The Liberator," formerly The Masses, was written in Moscow August 20th, and was just admitted to the United States by the censor.

Lenin indicates the report that the Russian Bolsheviki plan to carry their doctrines into all countries not only is true, but has been uppermost in the minds of the Bolsheviki since their revolution in 1917.

A recent dispatch from Copenhagen quoted Harold Scavenius, Danish minister to Russia as saying the Bolsheviki have established schools in Moscow for the education of agitators and that several of these "pupils" had already left Russia with the intention of spreading Bolshevism in their respective countries.

"We realize that the mad resistance of the bourgeoisie against the Socialist revolution in all countries is unavoidable," Lenin wrote. "We know, too, that with the development of this revolution this resistance will grow. But the proletariat will break down this resistance and in the course of its struggle against the bourgeoisie the proletariat will finally become ripe for victory and power."

"We are in a beleaguered fortress so long as no other international Socialist revolution comes to our assistance with its armies. But these forces exist, they are stronger than ours, they grow, they strive, they become more invincible. Inevitably labor is approaching communistic Bolshevistic tactics, is preparing for the proletarian revolution that alone is capable of preserving culture and humanity from destruction."

Peace

Abiding Faith in Christmas Story

I AM glad to be able to profess myself as among those whose faith in the divinity of Christ is as firm-fixed today as when as a little child I first read or was told the Christmas story, and accepted it as a truth as securely based upon the bed-rock of fact as anything I knew to be true; as something no more to be doubted than that the sun rose o'mornings, that the moon shone brightly at night, that the stars seemed to smile in friendly fashion upon me, and that the world was full of wonderful things. Many catastrophic things have happened since that happy period of my life, and there has been no end of blasting at the Rock of Ages in the interval between the Then and the Now by men searching for a truth they could not see lying on the surface before them, but not once has the faith of that little child of two-score and ten years ago wavered, or even felt the jar of the soul-quake that has hurled so many down from the pinnacles of light into the abyssal darkness of unbelief. But even if the Christmas legend were merely a legend, and Jesus Christ were to be proven to have been merely man, still would there remain undisturbed the faith in the divine origin of things for which He stood, of the God-like quality of the principles of which He was the incarnation.

Last Minute Bulletins

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—Declaring that he wanted the truth and the whole truth about Russia, Senator Hiram Johnson of California today announced he would renew his fight in the Senate when it reconvenes to obtain information about that country. Johnson recently introduced a resolution asking the state department to furnish all possible information to the Senate regarding conditions in Russia, but no action has been taken yet.

"I shall continue my inquiry. I do not propose to be pigeonholed by any committee or be suppressed by any department. I want the truth and the whole truth and our people are entitled to nothing less," he declared.

Johnson declared that he had received many letters from mothers of boys fighting in Russia, asking him for any information he might be able to give them.

The general made the circuit of the bridgehead in an automobile, motoring through solid lines of troops two deep, drawn up beside the road at salute. The columns were miles long in some districts. The troops presented a magnificent appearance with bands playing as they marched out and formed along the road. Pershing drove slowly by, halting frequently for inspection. The review lasted all day.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—Men of America's battle fleet coming home from the war must spend Christmas at sea. The squadron was expected to enter New York harbor tomorrow morning, but storms delayed it. Announcement was made today that the fighting ships will arrive at 9 a. m., Thursday for the review.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—Freedom of movement in this country was the Christmas present from President Wilson to German alien enemies. LIGHTING RATES IN THIS COUNTY RAISED BY DECISION

Railroad Commission Grants
Edison Co. Permission to Raise Its Schedule

Increased rates that will allow the Southern California Edison Company 8 per cent interest on its investment and which will increase the gross income of the company by $1,000,000 per year were granted the company in a decision filed in San Francisco yesterday by the Railroad Commission, according to a telegraphic report from San Francisco. Rates are lowered in some sections and raised in others, equalization of rates throughout Southern California seeming to be the purpose.

Neither Manager Deimling of this city nor officials in Los Angeles know exactly what the findings of the commission were as they have not as yet received copies. The company did not ask for any specific increase. It petitioned the commission to make an investigation and establish rates that would be just to the company. The commission has been engaged in the work of ascertaining the condition and valuations of the company holdings for several months and the electric company officials claim they do not know just what rates have been established by the report, which was written by Commissioner Edgerton.

Two rates have obtained in Orange county. Santa Ana and some other cities and sections in the county have been operating under a rate of seven cents per kilowatt hour for lighting and six cents for power, with the latter rate decreasing as the larger volume is used.

In other sections of the county where the rate was established by the Pacific Light & Power Company some years ago, eight cents prevails for lighting "juice." The sections include Huntington Beach, Newport Beach, Laguna Beach, Westminster, Smeltzer, Los Alamitos and intervening territory.

The increase will come principally through surcharges, and which it is claimed in Los Angeles will add about one cent to the kilowatt hour charge now in vogue in Orange county. The new tariffs will be effective January 2. The surcharge will range from 10 to 14 per cent, according to service. Local rates in Los Angeles and Pasadena are not disturbed. In Ventura the rate is reduced from 10 cents to eight cents per kilowatt hour for lighting.

The petition asking for an increase in rates was filed as a relief measure for war conditions and has been before the commission since last July. The situation today is the same as it was at that time.

TRUCK DRIVER ESCAPES DEATH, FINDS SUICIDE

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 24.—W. T. Burris, a local truck driver, was thrown from his truck as it toppled from a bridge near here due to an accident, and landed beside the body of Grover Franklin, 17, of this city, who presumably had killed himself. The boy was shot through the head with a .32-caliber revolver and the undertaker says there is little question but that it is a plain case of suicide. The boy had been visiting his father near El Monte, and no cause for his action is known.

The truck landed bottom-side up in the river and the escape of the driver is considered remarkable.

CHILDREN RUSH DEPOSITS TO ACCEPT BANK DONATION

The California National Bank
Adds Accounts of Hundreds of Little Ones

That there are lots and lots of children in Santa Ana who have little sums of money of their very own and that Register advertising is 100 per cent. efficient are two facts revealed conclusively to the California National Bank today.

The response to the Bank's offer of a credit of fifty cents to every child who opened a bank account there today, as presented and promoted exclusively through Register advertising, was beyond the expectation of the management and by noon over 300 accounts had been opened, with every probability that the remaining 200 of the 500 accounts offered by the management would be opened before closing hours.

The children started to present themselves at the bank at the advertised hour and from that on they almost monopolized the bank force in accepting their money and opening their account in a neat little bank book. The book and a small savings bank was given to each child.

One of the surprising features of the "run" on the bank was the large number of children who brought money with them to add to that given by the bank. The amounts ranged from 50 cents to $10.

An extra number of clerks was employed to handle the little ones. And they were happy little folks as they proudly walked up to the windows, deposited their savings and asked for a bank book and safe.

In order that the 50 cents given by the financial institution remain the property of those opening accounts, $5 additional must be deposited during the year 1919. The bank's encouragement in thrift is a fine lesson and every one of the little ones who listed their names as among the depositors of this growing institution will benefit and profit by saving some of their earning and "pin" money and adding it to their main deposits.

"This demonstrates conclusively to us that Register advertising pays," said E. E. Vincent, president of the bank, as he surveyed the lobby full of little ones waiting for their turn to get to the windows to open their accounts.

"Often in general advertising it is impossible to tell whether a firm is getting results, and there are some who doubt the efficiency of the advertising. While the advertising is producing results, without question, there is no way of determining that result. The success of today has fully convinced us that the Register has great pulling power, and that advertising pays."

SERIOUS CRIME WAVE THROUGHOUT WORLD IS NOW THE PREDICTION

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24.—What is expected to be the most serious wave in criminal history is predicted by San Francisco psychologists and criminologists to prevail throughout the world for some time. Already police records are showing an increase over pre-war and war-time records. In this city alone many startling and brutal attacks have menaced public safety.

According to Theodore Kytka, famous criminologist, history shows a great increase in crime following wars.

"We are living in an age of excitement, under unnatural conditions," declared Kytka. "The world is hysterical. The battlefield has shown men how cheap life is. Forgeries, murders, suicides, bank robberies, every crime conceivable, has been committed within the past month. There will be no let-up for some time; it will increase."

According to August Vollmer, Berkeley chief of police and criminologist, crime has increased over twenty-five per cent in the last few months.

ROYALISTS TRY FOR RETURN OF MONARCHISTS TO POWER

Propaganda Campaign to Win
Support of Germans and Austrians Under Way

* BERLIN, Dec. 23.—(Delayed)—Royalists have started an active propaganda campaign to win the support of the German and Austrian people for re-establishment of the monarchy. It became apparent today. The movement centers in Bavaria, regarded as the pivotal state of the Austro-German political situation.

The Republicans are convinced that formal establishment of a German republic and election of president will effectually end the aspirations of the monarchists. As a result, they are redoubling their efforts to combat the monarchial propagandists. Bavaria, in addition to its territorial and economic importance, will bring into the German republic a large portion of German Austria, which would replace any territory lost through the aspirations of the French and Poles. The German newspapers, therefore, believing a strong central government absolutely essential to the life of the German republic, are vigorously opposing the republican separatist movement in Bavaria on the grounds it would weaken the democratic movement and be playing into the hands of the royalists.

The plan for establishment of seven semi-republics in Germany—and Austria, to be confederated like the United States, was being strongly advocated in Saxony. The newest program in this connection provides the following line-up:

Dresden as the capital of Upper Saxony; Hanover as the capital of Lower Saxony; Coblenz as the capital of the Rhinlands; Stuttgart as the capital of Schwaben, which would be called Neckland; Munich as the capital of Bavaria, which would be called Danubeland; Vienna as the capital of German Austria, which would be called Aipland; and Berlin as the capital of Oberland which would include Brandenburg, Prussia, Posen and Silesia.

Each republic would have a local president or governor, who would be under the confederation president in matters of national importance. Either Berlin or Dresden would be the national capital.

Electioneering in the balloting for delegates to the national assembly is proceeding. The army is taking an active part in this. General Von Goullard, commander of the fourteenth Baden army corps, has issued a proclamation urging the army to vote against the Spartacists.

NEED PUBLICITY ON CONFERENCE

BY J. W. T. MASON
(Written for the United Press)
NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—Growing imperialistic sentiment in France favoring the annexation of the German Rhinlands may become a part of the French government's formal peace demands, if Italy's trans-Adriatic expansionist ambitions are recognized by the Allies and America.

Imperialism and the balance of power are coming more and more into prominence at the preliminary discussions of the European representatives at Paris. It is a natural development, for national ambition must inevitably find spokesmen after a victorious war.

But unless the better judgment of the peace congress finally rejects these annexationist rivalries, Europe will return to the same materialist policy that existed before the present conflict. Instead of being a peace congress, the Versailles conference will then have done no more than fix the territorial reasons for the next war. In the midst of the present conflict, the French government made a secret treaty with Russia whereby the latter recognized France's right to the German territory north of Alsace-Lorraine and west of the Rhine. This area includes the German districts now occupied by American, British and Belgian troops. The treaty was negotiated while the late Czar was in power. It was made public by the Bolsheviks and later was renounced by a French ministry. There are indications that a return to this claim is now being urged by certain French interests. If the peace conference were to recognize France's right to the Rhinlands, France herself would undoubtedly be prepared to put no obstacles in the way of Italy's desire to dominate the eastern shore of the Adriatic. The most effective way to assist the French and Italians who oppose a trade of this sort, would be to throw open to the world the deliberations of the peace conference. Democracy's greatest aid at Versailles will be publicity.

CRACKSMEN AGAIN GET BUSY, BLOW SAFE

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 24.—Cracksmen who are believed to have robbed the Colonial theater last week of $700, today are believed responsible for the blowing of the safe at the Palace theater, less than a block away, some time since the theater closed Sunday night, where they obtained nearly as much as at the Colonial.

Entrance was made through the rear door and the safe muffled with portieres which the robbers had previously soaked with water. The method is identical to that of the other robbery, where the noise of the explosion was lessened with tablecloths.

LIVINGSTON TRIAL SET FOR NEXT MONDAY

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 24.—Robert and Ben Livingston, charged with draft evasion, will come up for trial next Monday before the military court at Fort McArthur without a lawyer representing them. Earl Rogers, George Adams and J. G. Rafferty, who were engaged to defend them, have withdrawn and so far no others have been appointed.

The two men fled to South America to escape military service, it is charged. Ben Livingston, having been inducted into service, is charged with desertion and Robert with being absent without leave.

AFTER NINE MONTHS CONSTANT SERVICE AT THE FRONT THREE ORANGE COUNTY MEN ARE SAFE

Of 1700 From This County,
This Trio Oftenest Under
German Fire

Of the 1700 men who have gone from Orange county into army and navy service, none have seen more service at the front than have these three Orange county boys—Horace Munger of El Toro, William Kneen of Santa Ana and Edwin Miller of Anaheim—who have been with the 117th Engineers of the famous fighting Rainbow Division.

Letters written after the armistice have been received by relatives of each of these three boys, who went through nine months of almost constant duty where shells were breaking and rifle bullets and Hun gas sought their lives.

These three Orange county boys have seen a wide variety of service. While with an engineering regiment, frequently they have taken rifles and have gone after the Hun, or stood with machine guns while the Hun tried to get them.

At the Very Front

A part of the time these men built barbed wire fences out in No Man's land, night after night. At other times they tore down trenches so that huge tanks could pass through. French building, trench repairing, and making, bridging the Marne or the other river under fire—there was nothing in the way of front-line engineering work that Kneen, Munger and Miller have not done. Of all the Orange county men who will return with rightful claims to the name of veteran they are the ones who may best claim that name. Of course, there are many others, but none who fought with the American forces of all those who went overseas from this country as had more days and nights within reach of the German guns than have these men.

A letter just received from Horace Munger, his mother, Mrs. Nellie Munger of El Toro, was written after the armistice. A similar letter has been received by C. F. Kneen of 1230 North Broadway, Santa Ana, from William Kneen, and Edwin Miller has written to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Miller of 818 West Broadway, Anaheim, saying that he is safe.

In action Feb. 20

The regime arrived in France a year ago the 1st of October. They entered action on February 20. Munger in his letter said that after nine months of constant service it can well be imagined that the 117th was glad to hear that the war was over. He said that in those nine months he had been in constant service excepting during brief resting spells. During the last six weeks of the war they were at the front all of the time, advancing with the Americans,

WILLIAM KNEEN

through the Argonne. The first two weeks of that period took the 117th into the most terrific conflicts it experienced throughout the war. When the war ended they were near Sedan. In one of his last letters home, Kneen says that since February 20 he has been at the front all the time, excepting when they took time off to "rest and boil cooties."

From Sedan the Rainbow Division marched to Coblenz, where dispatches say the division now is. A letter from Miller just received states that while on that march, Miller caught cold in one ear and he had to go to a hospital.

So far as is known here, these veterans of the great war escaped wounds. They have seen comrades shot down by their sides. Shells and shrapnel have killed and wounded men all around them. They are safe. Their letters say they are ready and anxious to come home, and nobody can deny that they haven't earned an early trip westward to where the Statue of Liberty will greet them. "We can start home none too soon to suit me," writes Kneen.

Those who want to volunteer for the Iris training may do so by applying at recruiting service headquarters, 509 Pine street, San Francisco, in person or by mail. None but Americans are accepted.

ILL WITH PNEUMONIA, CHARGED WITH FRAUD

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 24.—Benj. W. Marks, a local real estate dealer, was placed under technical arrest yesterday under a warrant issued on a grand jury indictment alleging obtaining money falsely and embezzlement of securities valued at $50,000. The indictment was issued December 10 and though the warrant has been served on Mr. Marks he is too ill with pneumonia to report to the police. Bonds were furnished for $10,000 and the case has been set for January 14, depending upon the improvement in the accused man's condition.

It is charged as president of the United Farms Company, Marks with false pretenses claimed to H. C. Roberts of Peoria, Ill., the company had considerable holdings in California, including the 5760-acre Pinoche ranch in San Joaquin valley, valued at $125,000, and other property worth $250,000. It is alleged these claims are false.

Further charges are that five hundred shares of stock Roberts traded to the United Farms Company were appropriated by Marks and used by him personally.

"Peace on Earth" Christmas, 1918

—The words are vibrant with joy and a new hope!

—The World-tragedy is ended, Right enthroned, triumphant.

—A new day is dawning, with mighty movements of ideals working out, as far as is possible in human wisdom,

"The Parliament of Man, the Federation of the World"

—But in something mightier than that lies the hope of this War-cursed, Sin-cursed world. The Hope of the world lies in the universal acknowledgment of the Lordship of Christ.

—May that day soon come.

—May America as a nation live nearer and nearer to the teachings of the incomparable Son of Man and Son of God who proclaimed that

"Righteousness Exalteth a Nation"

—With hearts filled with the joy of the meaning of this Christmas Day, and the radiant promise of a new era, we wish the people of Orange County a most joyous Christmas and a New Year filled with unbounded happiness and prosperity.

IMPERIAL VALLEY GROWS GRAPEFRUIT

IMPERIAL, Dec. 24.—Another link has been added to the lengthening chain of Imperial valley industries with the establishment in this city of a modernly equipped citrus packing plant to handle the grapefruit from the young orchards which are this year bearing their first crop of importance. Operation began early in the week. The season's first car of pomelos was shipped out last week. The machinery is temporarily installed in the old warehouse of the Imperial Wholesale Liquor Company, the owner being J. W. Reed, whose 60-acre orchard northwest of the city is bearing its second crop. Mr. Reed already is making plans for the erection of an adequate plant through which to handle succeeding crops, which is to be larger than any building now in the city. He will this year, however, undertake to accommodate other citrus growers with packing privileges.

R. D. McPherrin, who has a two-year-old orchard of forty acres southwest of Imperial, expects to begin picking this week, and estimates that his first crop will equal three carloads.

Local citrus growers believe that grapefruit will, within a few years, be one of the most important products of the valley.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Never, since the star in the East stood over the manger in Bethlehem of Judea on that first Christmas, over nineteen centuries ago, has there been so wonderful a Christmas as the one that will dawn tomorrow.

After four years of the bitterest conflict the world has ever known, there has come peace—an honorable peace, a peace of victory for the right.

There will be people in the world tomorrow who will be cold and hungry—but tomorrow is bright with the promise of better things for them, for the highways of the seven seas are now safe for commerce, and the ships that have carried soldiers and munitions of war will now carry food for the hungry and warm clothing to those who are cold.

There will be hearts in the world tomorrow that are bitter with the bitterness of the conquered—but for their souls' good, tomorrow brings the lesson that right, after all, is might and ever will be so in the end.

It is truly a season for rejoicing—such a season as the Psalmist must have known when he sang his exultant song of thanksgiving, which we can sing with full hearts this Christmas day:

"O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands; serve the Lord with gladness and come before His presence with a song. O go your way into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise; be thankful unto Him and speak good of His name."

We are told that the first Christmas came when, after a period of wars, there was peace throughout the known world. Not all vexed questions had been settled, nor all wrongs righted; but for a little time War had stayed its bloody hand, and in that little time the gentle Child was born.

Ever since He was born Evil and Selfishness have thrown themselves against the truths He came to teach, but always in vain. This last great war in defense of these truths has taught the world a lesson. We have learned that the establishing of these truths should not be a result obtained by bloodshed, but a means to prevent war and violence for all time. Now it is the purpose of their defenders to establish them so firmly that the evil-minded and the unjust no longer will dare to attack them nor brave men's blood have to be shed that they may be preserved.

This is what the first Christmas really meant. This is why the morning stars sang together and the multitude of the heavenly host praised God and said, "Peace on Earth." It was not because peace had come for a little while to Roman and to Jew, but because something had come which, when men learned to understand it, was bigger and stronger than any single nation or all of them together. It has taken the world almost two thousand years to realize what the Gift really meant, but at last there is hope that Peace is to be the firm, unshakable foundation on which, hereafter, we are to build.

So let us keep our feast once more in all its good old-fashioned heartiness, with gift and greeting, decoration and song. We have reason as never before.

WANTED—A HEART

One of the posters used in advertising the Red Cross Christmas Roll Call bore the words, "All you need is a heart and a dollar." Of course, the dollar was pretty necessary, but the heart was by far the more essential of the two. With that to begin with, it was simply a matter of a little convincing, of denying oneself some small thing, of opening a purse or making out a check.

It is fascinating, when one stops to consider, how many good things can be done in the world by people who possess hearts. There is plenty of money, there are plenty of workers with energy and time and ability. All they need is a heart to set them at tasks of mercy. Health and happiness and safety for all, courtesy and honesty in human relations, decent living conditions, all these things can be attained so easily when that one requirement is met.

New Year's resolutions would not be broken so early—perhaps they would not need to be made—if the heart were not lacking to make them effective.

Most people have the dollar. How

With the passing of this Holiday season we wish for all of you a

Merry Christmas

—to many in the land it is, this year, a season mixed with sorrow but to many it brings the knowledge that your loved ones are safe and well and that they will be coming back to you very soon. We are very glad for you.

W. A. Huff Co.

Now a song of joy to the Service-boy
From our loyal, loving lips,
For four long years of darkening fears
Has Christmas been in eclipse.
But now, at last, are the dark clouds past,
And the Old Song sings again,
And "Peace on Earth" has a newer birth
And the brave "Good will to men!"
Good will to friend, good will to foe,
And that goodness of will shall the German know,
For goodness is justice—to high and low.
In the long, long years he shall make amends,
As make them he shall must.
He shall know us at last as his only friends,
Who have forced him to be just.
We have saved his soul from its worship of Might,
At the devil's altar of Shrecklichkeit.

We bear no malice to cot nor palace
Because we have won the fight,
And when we punish we are not Hunnish,
But the measure of Right is right!
So hail to the boys who have brought the joys
Of the Old Song back again,
And "Peace on Earth" may renew its worth
And the brave "Good will to men!"
Good will to the friends who win the goal,
Good will to the foe who thrives his soul,
And shall pay, in the flesh, as the seasons roll!

And so, as we send our song adrift,
With our glad and grateful prayers,
Our hearts are full, but we bring no gift
Which is worthy to match with theirs.
What Gift could we offer our Service-men?
Who have brought back Christmas to Earth again?

to secure the heart for using it rightly is the difficult problem which the world has faced for many a day. Nevertheless, there is something encouraging in the truth taught by the Red Cross poster, "All you need is a heart," and the other things can easily be done.

42,000 JOBS FOUND FOR PARTIALLY DISABLED MEN

Pennsylvania has taken the lead among the states in providing for men disabled in war or in industry. The State Department of Labor and Industry is making a systematic effort to obtain accurate information on the labor situation, and has obtained some interesting statistics, which have been communicated to the Department of Labor.

The state organization is making a survey to discover openings and possibilities for disabled soldiers. Its aim is to determine the number of places that can be filled and the kinds of work that can be done by handicapped men efficiently trained.

Already 42,000 places suitable for men with partial disabilities have been found in the state alone. Other states are making or are planning similar researches in order to gain accurate information regarding the jobs that will be awaiting discharged soldiers prepared to fill them.

The aim of the work is to bring to light employment needs and labor conditions in each locality, and to find plenty of work at standard wages for discharged soldiers, so that they may return to industrial life not as pensioners, but as self-supporting workmen.

Thousands of orange growers throughout the Southland own an interest in an industry which they have never seen. As very few of them could go and see the industry, a novel arrangement has been made whereby the motion-picture camera is to bring the industry to them.

The business referred to is the citrus box lumber industry. The various citrus associations throughout the state that are affiliated with the California Fruit Growers' Exchange maintain their own little lumbering camp, saw mills and all other equipment necessary for making box shooks, as the box material is called. The camp is known as Hilt, and is located in the big lumber district in the northern part of the state. It is from here that all box lumber used by the association comes.

That the growers might have an opportunity to see what has been accomplished at Hilt, and how the industry is carried on, arrangements were recently made to secure motion pictures of the town and the industry. They have now been finished. The audience will see the boxes made from the time the wood cutters fell the giant pines in the forest until the completed box is turned out.

Girls Enjoy 'One Jolly Time'
at Happy Party at Home of Miss Grace White

"One jolly time" is a good way to describe the merry Christmas party enjoyed last evening at the home of Miss Grace White by the members of the Chatt 'n Seau Club and a few invited friends.

The rooms presented a fairyland of Yuletide emblems, Christmas bells, poinsettias, greenery and a lovely tree entering into the decorative motif.

The first part of the evening was passed with music, sewing and lively chat, following which Miss White served a dainty collation of frozen eggs-nogs, macaroons, coffee and salted almonds. The place cards bore Christmas greetings and were attached to candy canes.

The prettiest feature of the evening was the entrance of a sprightly elf, later found to be Miss Miriam Baird, who rang the bell and came in with a well filled pack. She first distributed a motley array of "josh" gifts, which caused much amusement and later each guest received a beautiful present from some other member of the club.

Those who enjoyed Miss White's cheery hospitality were the following: Misses Gertrude Potts, Minnie Gardner, Irene Craemer, Arlie Cravath, Alice Huntington, Edwina Collins, Hattie Powers; Misses, Luie Butterfield, Leonard Harvey, H. A. Gardner, Harold Nelson and Fred Merker.

Christmas Exercises

The Sunday school of St. Peter's Evangelical church, corner of Sixth street and Van Ness avenue, will render an appropriate Christmas service this evening beginning at 7 o'clock. The program consists of songs, anthems, duets, vocal and violin solos, and recitations of various kinds. There will also be several Christmas trees and gifts for the children. The exercises promise not only to be entertaining but also edifying.

The total membership of the Santa Ana Red Cross Chapter was elevated quite a little yesterday by the reporting in of some of the auxiliaries and increases in Santa Ana and some of the auxiliaries that had already reported. The total this morning stood at 5,322, with partial reports in from all but Huntington Beach, Capistrano and Seal Beach. The total number of new names taken on the Christmas Roll Call drive for the district may reach 6,000.

Some of the auxiliaries are expected to turn in good lists and there is still chance for Santa Ana and other sections to increase the number all ready filed with Chairman C. A. Riggs.

About 200 volunteer memberships were taken yesterday at the booths on the streets and at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, where Riggs makes his headquarters.

While the drive has not resulted in securing as many members as it was hoped would be obtained, those in charge locally are satisfied. The workers within the Santa Ana Chapter district have been on the job and no opportunity to secure a name has been overlooked.

The spirit of co-operation shown by the people generally has been a feature that was particularly pleasing to the solicitors.

COURTHOUSE NEWS

THOUGH WRISTS BROKEN JUDGE COX CAN WRITE

It takes more than a fall off of a first-story veranda to put Justice of the Peace J. B. Cox permanently out of business. His forearms are in splints as the result of fractures sustained when he walked off the veranda, which had no rail on it, of a country hotel at King City, Monterey county, two weeks ago. The fingers are not bound, however, and the judge dropped into his office yesterday, where the duties of the office have been looked after by Justice Goepper of Balboa, to sign his name to some papers.

FORD AUTO IS STOLEN FROM IRVINE FARMER

Walter Tate, farmer below Irvine, has reported to Sheriff Jackson that some one stole his Ford automobile at Anaheim last night some time before midnight.

The sheriff is of the opinion that during the holidays a number of automobiles may be taken by men who want to get somewhere and have no way to go but walk.

DIVORCE DECREES

An interlocutory decree of divorce was given yesterday to Mary Ryan against Howard Ryan, who was ordered to pay $16 a month for the care of a minor child.

Allie B. Price was granted an interlocutory decree against Robert S. Price.

FOR CUTTING IN

J. M. Cloyes has sworn to a complaint charging the owner of the automobile that has license No. 17632 with cutting in on Newport road. Cloyes got the number as the machine passed.

COURTHOUSE NOTES

Yesterday judgment of $538.47 was given to Geo. H. Urie against J. C. Hoge, a real estate man of Orange.

Judge Thomas heard a part of the evidence in the action of Moropoulos against Karales, a suit for accounting, and continued the case to Dec. 28th. This will probably be the last contested civil action to be heard by Judge Thomas as judge of the superior court.

Answers have been filed by attorneys for P. A. Stanton and the Bay-side Land Co. in the actions brought through the district attorney's office to close the Tower Cafe and the Seal Inn under the Redlight Abatement Act. These answers come from the owners of the real estate. Separate answers are to be put in by those running the cafes.

Miguel Aguilar, held to answer on a charge of transporting booze, will be arraigned in the superior court on Jan. 3rd.

WSS HONOR ROLL CLUB POPULAR WITH MANY PEOPLE

First Announcement of Plans Brings Many Inquiries For Pledge Cards

"It's a fine idea, and I hope the people of Orange county will quickly take up the quota of the 1800 men who have gone into the army and navy from this county."

This was the expression of a local man who early yesterday morning called on County Chairman John McFadden to get one of the pledge cards to take up a soldier's quota and become a member of the W. S. S. Honor Roll Club.

Ten or twelve people called during the day to get the cards, and indications are that the plan will become as popular as did the Match the President Club organized at the close of the second Liberty Loan drive.

Yesterday afternoon a committee met at the office of McFadden and selected a list of about 500 names to whom the pledge cards will be mailed after Christmas. The names selected were from Santa Ana only.

The men who have gone into the service have demonstrated their patriotism and have done their duty. The people at home should be glad and proud to take their quotas for them, and if those quotas are all subscribed Orange county will have the honor of being one of the counties in the state to subscribe the full quota.

While everybody who can buy is asked to do so in order to make certain that the county and city go over the top, only those who subscribe for four war stamps in addition to what they have already bought or pledged will be entitled to membership in the W. S. S. Honor Roll Club. This honor is given such subscribers because they will be buying additional stamps. The stamps are not to be given the soldiers, but are to be returned to the purchaser.

"Every citizen of Orange county is today asked by the War Savings Committee to buy some soldier's quota of War Savings Stamps," said McFadden today.

"There are 1800 men from this county serving the colors and each of these men is represented by $20 in the quota assigned by the Treasury Department to this county. I would urge that other citizens take out additional stamps to cover this amount and thus put Orange county over the top in the last big wartime job of 1918."

"If every soldier were here to buy his amount, instead of in camp or overseas backing up the great peace our armies have won, it would mean an added $36,000 in W. S. S. and would thus bring victory to the county which needs only that amount to stand 100 per cent. roll call."

"Since the boys are doing their duty to their country and standing back of the Government to the fullest, it is the duty of citizens who can afford it, to aid them by doing their bit financially at home. These purchases are of course not intended as gifts to the soldiers but simply as a helping hand to meeting the obligations to Uncle Sam which they cannot assume in view of

I saw three Genii tugging at the Sun,
Ere History had begun,
And one cried "Glory!—we have turned his path;"
And one cried "Peace!—against the winter's wrath;"
And one cried out "Good will! good will to men!
For now the earth shall fructify again."

I saw three Angels flying from afar,
And following a Star,
And one sang "Glory!—to the coming morn;"
And one sang "Peace!—whose baby Prince is born;"
And one sang out, "Good will! good will to men!
Faith, Hope and Love are in the world again."

I saw three Aces winging through the night,
After the hard-fought fight,
And one called "Glory! for the war is won;"
And one called "Peace! the tragedy is done;"
And one called out "Good will! good will to men!
Lucifer falls! and Christmas comes again!"

Will you buy a soldier's quota? Eighteen hundred people in this county are asked to do this service of the brave men who have made possible the wonderful peace which greets the world at this Christmas season.

SPANISH INFLUENZA—THE WAY TO TREAT IT AND TO AVOID IT

Simply the Old-Fashioned Grip Masqueading Under a New Name

—Spanish Influenza, which appeared in Spain in May, has all the appearance of grip or la grippe, which has swept over the world in numerous epidemics as far back as history runs. Hippocrates refers to an epidemic in 412 B. C. which is regarded by many to have been influenza. Every century has had its attacks. Beginning with 1831, this country has had fine epidemics, the last in 1889-90.

There is no occasion for panic—influenza or grip has a very low percentage of fatalities—not over one death out of every four hundred cases, according to the N. C. Board of Health. The chief danger lies in complications arising, attacking principally patients in a run down condition—those who don't go to bed soon enough, or those who get up too early.

THE TREATMENT

Go to bed at the first symptoms, not only for your own sake but to avoid spreading the disease to others—take a purgative, eat plenty of nourishing food, remain perfectly quiet and don't worry. Nature herself is the only "cure" for influenza and will throw off the attack if only you conserve your strength. A little Quinine, Aspirin or Dover's Powder may be given by the physician's directions to allay the aching. Always call a physician, since the chief danger of grip is in its weakening effect on the system, which allows complications to develop. These are chiefly pneumonia and bronchitis, sometimes inflammation of the middle ear, or heart affections. For these reasons, it is very important that the patient remain in bed until his strength returns—stay in bed at least two days

RED X BRANCH AT GLORYETTA HAS NEW OFFICERS

Annual Meeting Held at the School House on Thursday Last

GLORYETTA, Dec. 24.—The annual meeting of the Gloryetta branch of the Red Cross was held at the Delhi school house last Thursday evening, fifteen members being present, with Mrs. Agnes A. Gillison presiding.

The meeting was opened by singing the Star Spangled Banner. After a few remarks by the chairman on the work of the Red Cross, the secretary, Mrs. Hannah M. Nichols, read the annual report, which showed a balance of over $50 in the treasury.

Election of new officers resulted in the selection of Mrs. Alice E. Stewart as chairman, Mrs. Emma Wagner as vice-chairman, and Mrs. Kate Montgomery as secretary-treasurer.

The meeting was closed by the singing of America.

The regular meetings of this branch of the Red Cross will be resumed, after having been interrupted by the influenza epidemic, in the auditorium of the Delhi school house on Thursday, January 2, 1919, at 2 p. m., when it is hoped there will be a good attendance.

First Annual Report

Following is the first annual report of the branch:

This branch was organized on the 21st day of February, 1918, with seven members present. Mrs. Jeannette McGill, Mrs. Victor Montgomery and Miss Montgomery represented the Santa Ana Chapter. Mrs. Agnes A. Gillison was elected chairman; Mrs. Lillian Berns, vice-chairman, and Mrs. Hannah M. Nichols, secretary-treasurer.

Work was conducted in the auditorium of the Delhi school house every Thursday afternoon until the influenza became prevalent and the school house was closed. Mrs. Geo. Stewart was appointed chairman of the Sewing Committee and Mrs. H. A. Wagner attended to the cutting out.

The income of the branch was as follows:

Three entertainments	$ 93.77
Chicken dinner	60.00
Garments sold	3.75
One-half of 17 membership subscriptions	8.50
Total	$166.02

The expenditures were as follows:

Yarn from the Santa Ana Chapter	$ 85.50
Flannellette	15.60
Tape for binding	1.50
Sewing machine	12.50
Total	$115.10

This leaves a balance in the Farmers & Merchants' Bank of $50.92.

There is still due this branch $133.75, being 25 per cent of $535, the amount collected for the Red Cross Drive held last May.

This branch of the Red Cross has made and turned in to the Santa Ana Chapter the following articles: 52 pairs socks, 15 sweaters, 56 garments.

Besides the above there has been fixed and made over a large number of garments for the Belgian Relief and to which Mrs. Stauffek also donated 36 pairs of shoes.

The following are the names of the seventeen members who joined this branch since it was organized:

Mrs. Kate Montgomery, R. J. Webster, Miss Muriel Stewart, Miss Elsie Carter, Joseph Koral, Mrs. Lillie Webster, F. R. Grafton, L. J. Lipner, Mrs. Mary Sepulveda, L. P. Grafton, Mrs. Maude Fickas, Miss Myrl Bohannon, W. J. McWilliams, J. S. Ellis, J. P. Thompson, Samuel Thompson, R. Thompson.

There are several others who are members of this branch but who had paid their memberships to the Santa Ana Chapter before this branch was organized.

- 2—Employers of labor who file with a labor agency a false wage list, false working conditions or false information concerning work.
- 3—Failure of a worker to render service after arriving at place of employment, when his transportation has been advanced.

WOUNDED THREE TIMES, FISHER IN HOSPITAL AT WAR END

Santa Ana Boy Proud of His Help In Driving the Huns Out

Wounded at three different times, and a participant in the first of the big American drive at Chateau-Thierry, Corp. J. M. Fisher was about ready to again enter the front lines and take another chance when the armistice was signed. He is with Co. D, 55th Infantry. Writing to his mother, Mrs. J. A. Fisher, 519 West Second street, from France under date of Nov. 25, he says:

Well, mother, dear, cheer up. The censor has taken the lid off and I can write a bit more freely than I could in the past. So I will tell you a few of my experiences over here in Sunny France.

I landed at Glasgow, Scotland, July 9th, came down through Wales to England and stayed at Southampton for a few days, during which I visited Romsey Abbey and saw many interesting relics, which I hope to tell you about in person soon.

After leaving Southampton, I sailed across the English channel, landing at Le Havre, France, where I stayed for two days. From there I went to St. Aignan Noyers and Sambin and was assigned to Co. H, 55th Infantry, 4th division and was made corporal.

We then went on the firing line and on Aug. 4th I was wounded for the first time by a piece of shrapnel from a bursting shell. This was the battle of the Vesle river on the Chateau-Thierry front. It is said to have been the hardest fought battle the Americans ran up against, and believe me that is going some.

After being wounded I was sent to evacuation hospital No. 7 at Colomiers and from there to base 48 in Mars, which is in Southern France. After I recovered I went again to St. Aignan Noyers and drew new clothing and equipment and went back to my outfit, which was then on the Verdun front. I went over the top with them and we drove the Huns back several kilometers, but I was again wounded, this time in the chest, side, hand and wrist by an exploding shell. I was sent to the field hospital, but as all my wounds were slight I hastened back to my company and went over the top again.

We started and routed the Boche out of their trenches on Dead Man's Hill just out of the devastated city of Verdun. Hill 304, or better known as Dead Man's Hill, had been held by the Germans ever since 1914, and is called Dead Man's Hill because it has not a square yard which is not pitted with shell holes and littered with skeletons of Allied and German soldiers. Believe me, I was proud to have a part in helping to drive the Germans from the section that they held so long. We drove for ten heart-breaking, nerve-rending days up from the Verdun front and into the Argonne woods and across the Meuse river.

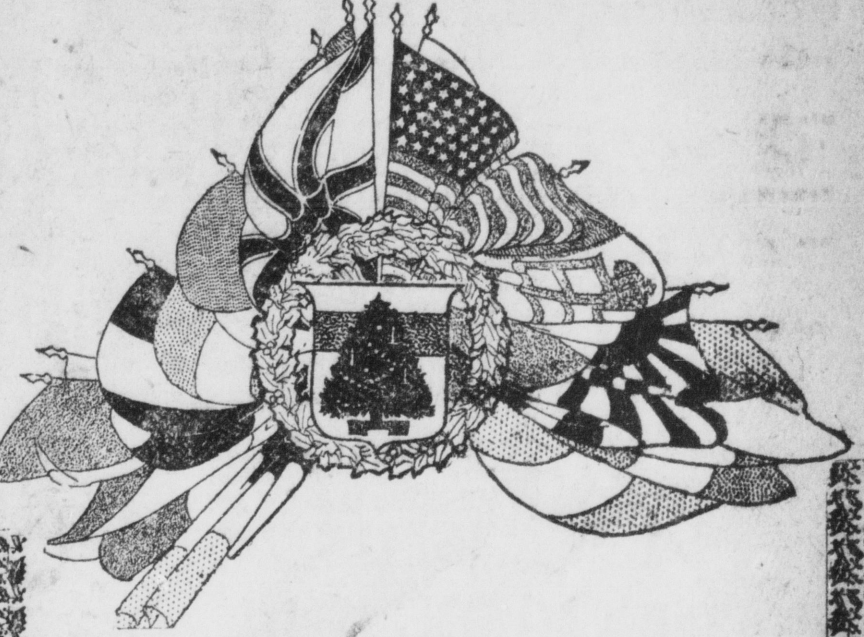

I was then sent into the woods with part of my squad to quiet a bunch of snipers who were causing a great deal of trouble with their machine guns. One of my men was killed and I was wounded in the left leg while in this act, but we bagged a few of the boches, so we felt that we had done our duty.

I was then sent to the evacuation hospital at Souilly and from there to Base Hospital No. 86, where I am now, and have been since Oct. 9. I am able to get around pretty fair now and expect to be out before very long. Base No. 86 is at Mevres, so grab a map of France and look over the travels of your little son.

Well, Mother dear, I have fought and I have suffered, but I know that you folks at home have bravely faced a struggle of waiting that requires the highest type of courage that exists. Although it seems at times that I swayed over the brink of veritable hell, I believe it has made me better at heart rather than worse.

Soldiers and Sailors of Orange In Christmas Parade Tomorrow Morning

ORANGE, Dec. 24.—A movement placed on foot through the Daily News promises to provide an interesting and unique feature for Christmas day in this city—a military review participated in by soldiers and sailors discharged or home for the holidays. The program planned also includes the presentation of a gold pin from the city to each soldier and sailor who takes part, as a souvenir of the peace Christmas. The plan has been endorsed by leading citizens and city officials and by a number of the men themselves.

Details of the holiday program are rapidly being completed and the event looms big on the Christmas day calendar.

The quickest and simplest way to stop an ugly, hard, la grippe cough is to take Foley's Honey and Tar. In it, you get the curative influence of the pine balsam (so beneficial for inflamed bronchial tubes and sore chest) and other healing ingredients, together with the mollifying laxative action of honey.

It covers and sheathes the inflamed surfaces of the throat, puts an end to the hard, racking cough, stops tickling and hoarseness.

SAN FRANCISCO MAN GAINED 24 POUNDS

Fred Sanders Suffered Thirty Long Years—Spent Hundreds of Dollars

"When I began taking Tanlac I only weighed one hundred and thirty-six pounds," said Fred W. Sanders, while in the Owl Drug Store at 710 Market St., San Francisco, recently, "and now I tip the beam at one hundred and sixty, which gives me an actual gain of twenty-four pounds in two months time."

"Mr. Sanders is a boiler-maker by trade, which occupation he states he gave up on account of ill health. He is now employed by the Glidden Varnish Company and lives at 702 Vallejo street. He has been a resident of San Francisco for forty years. In describing his trouble, which caused him so much suffering and loss of weight, Mr. Sanders said:

"I have suffered with my stomach thirty years or more. In fact, almost as far back as I can remember I have suffered from indigestion and constipation and these troubles have had me down and out many a time, especially during the past fifteen years. My stomach was so upset that nothing agreed with me and at times I couldn't even retain water on my stomach. I was bloated nearly all the time by the gas which formed after my meals and I simply suffered torture from the pains caused by it. I have tried about every diet a person could be put on. I could eat no fruits or meats and the very sight of eggs would upset my stomach. At one time I had a nervous breakdown, caused by these same troubles. I was laid up for six months at this time and spent over seven hundred dollars for treatment and medicines before I could get to work again. Since then I reckon I have spent twice that much more without getting more than a little passing relief. I finally had to give up my trade as boiler maker because the constant pounding and jar affected me so I was afraid of another breakdown. I got so I couldn't sleep at night and fell off until I weighed only one hundred and thirty-six pounds."

"Seeing Tanlac advertised in the papers, and as it was a new one on me I decided to try it. Now, just let me tell you, it has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken in the past ten years put together. And eat! why, I have the best appetite I have had in years and my big gain in weight shows how well my food agrees with me. My food all seems to digest perfectly and I never feel an ache or a pain. I sleep like a log at night and get up in the mornings thoroughly rested and ready for a big day's work. Tanlac certainly is some medicine and you may just count on me as one of the biggest boosters on the coast. I only wish I could have had it thirty years ago, it would have saved me a world of misery and pain I have been through all these years."

"Tanlac is sold in Santa Ana by Rowley Drug Co., in Fullerton by G. W. Finch, in La Habra by R. H. Hilbert, in Huntington Beach by Rigdon's Pharmacy, in Orange by Dittmer's Mission Pharmacy, in Placentia by A. J. Robinson, in Tustin by Tustin Drug Co., in Brea by Brea Pharmacy, and in Buena Park by Regal Drug Co."—Adv.

ORANGE, Dec. 24.—A double surprise occurred at the home of Mrs. Charlotte E. Beach, 132 North Cleveland street, Sunday evening, just after she had arrived home from an outing at the beach. A door bell summons brought Mrs. Ritter, who resides with Mrs. Beach, to answer it. To her great surprise she was greeted by her cousin, Corporal George B. Timms of Company E, 37th Artillery, C. A. C., and his friend, Chauffeur Vance Blackman, of the same company. Just behind them was the other part of the surprise, in the person of her father, just returned from Stanislaus county for the Christmas holidays. The two returned soldiers have been honorably discharged from Ft. Hancock, New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Ritter, daughter, Mrs. W. Beach, will, with their family, and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. A., and two soldiers, motor to Ojai for Christmas.

Holy eve service will be held at St. Paul's Lutheran church, beginning at 6 o'clock this evening. An elaborate program in English and German will be given with the school children. Distribution of gifts will follow. Everybody is welcome. An address on "Peace on Earth" will be given. Divine Christmas service will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Lena Barricks of Aurora, Neb., has arrived here to visit her sister, Mrs. John McCarthy. Her arrival was a pleasant surprise to Mrs. McCarthy. She will remain here indefinitely.

Mrs. George Breckenridge's mother, Mrs. Lavonn, died Sunday at her home in Hastings, Neb. Mrs. Lavonn lived in Orange several years. She returned to Hastings some time ago.

Sergeant W. C. Handy of the Coast Artillery has arrived in Orange, having been released from military service. He was at Hoboken, N. J., and was to sail on November 11, when the signing of the armistice cancelled the sailing orders.

MRS. MARY GREENLEAF DIES AT AGE OF 86, IS BURIED HERE

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Greenleaf, who died at her home in San Francisco, Dec. 12th, were brought to this city by her daughter, Miss Sue Greenleaf, and interment was made in Fairhaven cemetery, Saturday, Dec. 14th, at 4 p. m.

Mrs. Greenleaf was born in Kentucky on Jan. 14, 1833. She was the daughter of Mary Robinson and Allen Davis Sweet. She married Eric Hinckley Greenleaf, of Starke, Maine, in Missouri.

Despite her 86 years, Mrs. Greenleaf retained all of her faculties to the moment of her death and was a constant worker in war activities. She belonged to the famous Robinson family of England who established the Separatist church, Schooly, England, from which grew the Friends religious organization, in North England, early in 1600. On her father's side she was of Scotch-Irish and American Indian descent, the former being religious and political protectors who came to America in 1600, and the latter of Powhatan stock. Fifty of her family served in the Revolutionary war and as many or more of her husband's family were distinguished fighters on the side of Colonists during the Revolution 1776. She has two grandsons in the service now, James Greenleaf Umstad, in the Navy, and Ray Greenleaf Umstad in the Tank Corps.

Mrs. Greenleaf was a sister of Mrs. Lucy A. Greenleaf, widow of Dr. Eli F. Greenleaf, recently deceased; Mrs. Sue Halsell, and of B. W. Sweet, who recently died in Santa Ana, the father of Lottie Sweet, a teacher in Santa Ana, all of whom were cousins of W. H. and Granville Spurgeon, Santa Ana pioneers.

Her daughter, Miss Sue Greenleaf, is a well-known lecturer and writer, and is an authority on Mexican history. She is the author of "Don Miguel Lehumada," "Wed by Mighty Waves," and numerous feature stories. She wrote "The Light of the World is Uncle Sam" the night of April 6, 1917, the date of America's entrance into the war. It is a martial hymn, most beautiful in melody, with a lyric teeming with history and the high ideals for which America stands. It has had a most remarkable sale, though sold only by the author through the mail. She has hundreds of testimonials of its worth from army, navy and great educational authorities.

Miss Sue Greenleaf is a cousin of Walter Greenleaf, Sue, Kate Snowden, Oliver Halsell and Misses Lottie and Alma Sweet of this city.

CAREFULLY WATCHING ALL ORANGE SHIPMENTS

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Dec. 24.—Now that the orange season is open, the state commission of horticulture is again carefully watching fruit shipments to keep the California standard the highest. Data is being accumulated on which will be based recommendations for changes in the laws governing the packing, shipping and sale of fruit. At present oranges must conform to certain ripe color specifications, or must test eight parts of sugar to one part of acid before they can be picked and sold.

Some oranges, due to soil and climate, never reach that sugar content test even at the height of the season, although they are pleasant to the taste and rated as good fruit.

The first car of navel oranges to be shipped for this season, as far as the state commission of horticulture has been advised, was from Oroville, and brought approximately $9 a box.

From "Somewhere in France" he writes: "The French are queer people, and very easily offended. On week days you see them on the street with wooden shoes and old clothes doing all the work, while on Sunday they dress as good, if not better, than Americans. Everyone is stylish and neat. The children are always clean and neat. You never see them in overalls or dirty. The kids of 6 or 7 up to men all beg for tobacco. All tobacco in France goes to the front for the soldiers. The people collect around the kitchen at mess time to see how well we eat and what we eat. I have tasted the French war bread and it is the best bread I ever ate. I could live on it alone if I had plenty of it."

Corporal Smith has sent to his mother a copy of a poem, the sentiment of which she appreciates very much. It is entitled "Mother," by J. V. "Dear Mother, when I read each tender phrase, Each throbbing line of love you write to me, My heart grows sad, and oft I count the days Until at last I shall sail o'er the sea

TUSTIN
LIEUT. ROSS SHAFER RETURNS TO TUSTIN
Christensen Was In Fighting; Wollenberg In Siberia, Co. L Man Writes

Miss Florence Stone, Correspondent
TUSTIN, Dec. 24.—Lieutenant Ross Shafer arrived home last Thursday from Camp Lee, Va., where he has been since early in the year as instructor to the soldier boys. Lieut. Shafer attended the officers' training school at Camp Lewis and when he finished was made First Lieutenant and sent to Camp Lee as instructor in bayonet and gas work. He was one of fourteen instructors giving lectures and training to thousands of young men before being sent to France. He was released from duty after the armistice was signed and visited relatives and friends in the east on his way home.

Not Coming Home Soon
A letter from Norman Christensen states that he had been on the firing line when peace came and has since been in the hospital, but will soon be able to join his company in the marines. He does not expect to return home soon, but will probably be retained for some time.

Gettin' Cold in Siberia
A letter from Wm. Wollenberg, who is a soldier in far-off Siberia, says it is getting cold, but he is well prepared for it and is feeling fine. Says he would have liked to take the first boat for home when he heard the armistice was signed, but expects to stay as long as they need him.

Letter from Geo. A. Smith
Some interesting letters have been received from Corporal George A. Smith, with L. Co., 160th Infantry, A. E. F., giving impressions of the countries in which he has sojourned since going "over there." At the time of writing they had not been on the firing line, but everyone was "raring to go." From somewhere in England he writes: "This is sure a fine-looking country. The crops are the best I ever saw, but the fields are small. The people all live in villages and not in the country. They go back and forth to the farms. Everything seems out of date by about 100 years. The fields are all fenced and it is the prettiest country we have seen. All the pastures are as green as can be and there are no waste lands to mar the beauty. The buildings are all brick or stone and several families live in one house, like the tenement buildings of our large cities, and all painted red. Each one has about a thousand chimneys, more or less."

Must Watch Your Step
"The streets in towns are narrow and crooked, not as wide as a good-sized alley and paved with cobblestones, and, believe me, you have to watch your steps or the street will fly up and hit you in the face."

"We have lots of fun trying to count English money and keep from getting beat. Many do not understand our money, and they are not going to lose anything. We are raring to go. Every one is in fine spirits. We are being treated fine. Have a good camp not far from town."

Back, back to you and home and all I love, And once I cursed the fate that placed me here, And then I caught a vision from the skies Of why we fight and suffer and are sad! I saw the reason for our sacrifice. And seeing, lo! my heart grew strong and glad That I was in the ranks to fight and die. It need be, for the millions yet unborn! I saw the Belgian women as they lie, The spoils of Hunnish lust, undone and torn Their children lifting mutilated arms And babies caught upon the bayonet. Their aged mothers slaving on the farms To feed the German hordes unconquered yet! I saw the helpless sinking in the waves While German sailors laughed to see them die; I saw a row of new-made baby graves And distant air-craft sinking in the sky. I saw the towns of desolated France, The fruiting trees destroyed in senseless hate, Oh, mother, these I saw as in a trance And others that my lips dare not relate! Oh, think if we had lived in Belgium then, If France had been our home! Oh, God on High, To picture you the toy of brutish men, Our home destroyed, my loved ones left to die; I see—I see at last—the reason why We must forget the little things of life And dry our tears and stifle every cry. Whatever pain may issue from the strife! Why we must battle on, with ne'er a thought But victory, nor stop to count the cost. Until a sweeter Liberty is wrought, From out the old, which was so nearly lost! My mother, cheer your heart and dry your tears, For after while, God willing, I'll return. We fight for every mother as she sings Her babe to sleep upon her throbbing breast! We battle for the womanhood of earth For Liberty, for Honor and for Right! Be proud, oh mother dear, that you gave birth To one who lived to enter such a fight!

VILLA PARK.
VILLA PARK HOLLY LARGE, RICH COLOR
Children Send Fine Bunch of It to School Principal, Ill With Influenza

(Mrs. J. M. Gillogly, Correspondent)
VILLA PARK, Dec. 24.—The boys and girls of Villa Park, with Rev. G. W. Kitzmiller, climbed the hills back of the Hugh Thomson home in search of holly Sunday afternoon. They found lots of beautiful holly, larger in size and of a richer color than is usually found near here. The children expected to send a box of the finest to Principal Ball, who is ill with influenza at his home in Long Beach. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Jessup are spending a few days visiting with their parents here.

Claude, Lester and Louise Ryan motored to Long Beach Sunday afternoon. They enjoyed the trip to the fullest extent.

Word has been received here that the 145th, U. S. Army, landed on American soil and would entrain immediately for the West. Bronson Holditch, a Villa Park boy, is a member of the 145th and it is thought that he may go through Orange some time this week.

School Principal Very Ill
E. H. Ball, principal of the Villa Park school, came down with "flu" Friday. He was very ill, but wished to go to his home in Long Beach, so Saturday morning he was taken home. His condition is serious. It is hoped he will recover in time to resume his teaching here when the school is opened again.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Dettenthaler will spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Rasch. They expected to come down Tuesday.

C. O. Thomson Returns
C. O. Thompson, who enlisted in Y. M. C. A. work recently, and was sent to New York, returned Thursday evening. He reported at the headquarters and received his release. The reason that the Y. M. C. A. men that enlisted at the time that Mr. Thomson did, are being discharged is that so many men who are overseas as they are released from service join with the Y. M. C. A. and that makes it unnecessary to send any more overseas.

The Hugh Thomson family and Conger Thomson family will spend Christmas eve with Mrs. Hugh Thomson's sister, Mrs. Northrop at Alhambra and Christmas day with Mr. Thomson's brother in Los Angeles.

Attend Santa Ana Cantata
Sunday evening a party of Villa Park people attended the Christmas cantata given by the choir of the Santa Ana Congregational church. The evening was enjoyed by all and the music was splendid. The Villa Park people who attended the service were Mr. and Mrs. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy Smith, Miss Elizabeth Lee, and Miss Lena Rodick.

Mrs. Elma T. Lee expects to entertain with a family party at Christmas time. The guests were expected today and stay over Christmas. Those who are expected are Mr. Fred Lee of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Frick and family of Fullerton, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy Smith of Capistrano.
